

2nd International Health Promotion Workshop, Kitale, Kenya, 9 August 2013

“Health in All Policies” – What does that mean to local communities?

Draft Programme

9.00-9.30	Welcome & Introductions Address of the government, representative of the Ministry of Health, District Commissioner Representative of WHO AFRO and WHO Country Office	Chair: Bernard Kadasia, President of the Alliance
9.30-10.15	To build on last year’s workshop – what did we learn (report of the workshop), how to continue working together Discussion	Speakers: AMREF, REPSSI, AIHD, AEMRN
10.15-10.35	Coffee Break
10.35-12.00	Global policy for local implementation: Message of the 8GCHP - Health in All Policies - Statement of the Conference – what does that mean for local people? Framework for Country Actions – what role for communities in the implementation? Partnership between government and civil society Discussion	Keynote Speaker: WHO representative Other speakers: participants of the 8GCHP and local networks of the Alliance member NGOs
12.00-13.00	Lunch Break
13.00-14.15	Focus on an issue of local concern: Reducing traffic-related injuries and deaths - how can health promotion help Discussion	Speakers: Dr Charles Senessi, AEMRN President, WHO representative
14.15-15.30	Break-out groups discussing messages from the Grassroots, What should be on the global agenda? How we communicate? How to get community voices to the global level?
15.30-16.00	Measuring community participation – introduction of Spidergram, a WHO evaluation tool	Speaker: Susan Rifkin,
16.00-16.20	Coffee Break
16.20-16.50	Reports of break-out groups. What message to the 3rd Health Promotion Forum, Geneva, 29 Nov.2013?
16.50-17.00	Wrap-up and closing	Bernard Kadasia

Objectives:

1. Follow up last year's Workshop – what have we learned?
2. Bring down the messages of the Helsinki Global Conference on Health Promotion – Health in All Policies - to local level
3. A mediated discussion and training between WHO, local government and citizens/NGOs/activists
4. Focus on an issue of high importance to local population - Reducing traffic-related injuries and deaths
5. Take local voice to the global level – What does HiAP mean on the ground, how can communities get involved in shaping Country Actions - input for the 3rd Health Promotion Forum, Geneva, 29 November 2013

The context:

The Health Promotion Workshop will be organised for the second time in Kitale linked to the Mobile Clinics run by the Afro-European Medical and Research Network – www.aemrnetwork.ch

Local Support – Main contacts

- Dr. Geoffrey Kasembeli, AEMRN Country Consultant and
- Dr. Chris Barasa, AEMRN Country Medical Coordinator, District Commissioner's Office

Partners who expressed interest:

- AIHD, African Institute for Health and Development, Mary Nyanmango
- World YWCA, Nyaradzayi Gumbonzvanda, Hendrica Okondo, focal point for Africa
- ACWW, Sharon Hutton, Anphia Grobler, Semane Molotlegi (SA)
- SETAT Women's organization, Kenya, Lilian Paplan,
- FIP, Luc Besançon
- REPSSI, Regional Psychosocial Support Initiative
- AMREF, African Medical Research Foundation

Other potential partners :

- Soroptimist
- Aga Khan University, Kenya
- Peoples' Health Movement local representative
- PINCC
- IFMSA
- IPSF
- ICSW

Participants :

Invited will be all participants of the Workshop of last year including health professionals of the mobile clinics, new contacts, local NGOs, partners' representatives

Guests :

WHO Regional Office, WHO Country Office, Ministry of Public Health of Kenya

